

IT Project Manager (CIO)

Position: Full Time

Department: Information Technology

Location: Southfield, MI

Position Description

- IT Project Managers (CIO) for Southfield, MI location.
- Define, design, develop, and manage IT projects on a case by case basis.
- Perform needs analysis and recommend IT solutions.
- Design and develop enterprise level reporting systems on SQL Server.
- Design and develop on demand BI analytics report delivery dashboards and perform data warehousing, modeling, and mining.
- Responsible for strategic planning and management.
- Review existing processes and implement modifications and improvements.
- Responsible for cloud computing integration and optimization, donor retention analysis and management, and database design and automation.
- Technical Environment: SQL Server, Unix/Linux, JQuery, Javascript, Java/J2EE, ASP, .Net, Oracle, Visual Studio, MySQL, Apache.

Job Requirements

- *Master's degree in Computer Science, Information Science, or a related field plus two years of experience in the job offered or in software development required. (*Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, Information Science, or a related field plus four years of experience in the job offered or in Software Development also acceptable).
- Required skills: SQL Server, Unix/Linux, JQuery, Javascript, Java/J2EE, ASP, .Net, Oracle, Visual Studio, MySQL, Apache.